

Join the EPICUR Student Board – Call for Applications!

Are you passionate about shaping the future of European higher education? Then EPICUR's Student Board is on the lookout for enthusiastic new members to actively contribute to our dynamic international project.

About EPICUR:

EPICUR aims to pioneer innovative ways of cooperation and collaboration among its member universities, offering diverse mobility and exchange opportunities. At the core of EPICUR are student-centered learning approaches and collaborative teaching formats, along with various mobility options, including physical, virtual, or blended experiences.

EPICUR, the European University Alliance, consists of nine universities distributed all over Europe. To ensure that students' opinions and ideas are integral to the development process, we have established a dedicated student board. This board actively represents and addresses the needs and interests of students within EPICUR.

As academic journeys inevitably reach their conclusion, we are seeking new members.

If you are passionate about:

- Engaging in an international project at a European level
- Collaborating with diverse international individuals
- Fostering international cooperation

And you are:

- Currently in the midst of your studies (with a commitment of at least 1 year to fully immerse in the project)
- Want to proactively contribute to the development of the Student Board
- Possess a background in student representation (an asset but not mandatory)
- Are willing to travel within Europe (expenses covered)
- Have a creative mindset with the flexibility to invest the necessary time

We are looking for you!

Your Responsibilities:

- Monthly attendance at meetings (mostly online, with 3 in-person meetings per year)
- Weekly participation in meetings (jour fixes) when possible
- Active involvement in local EPICUR meetings and events

University of Freiburg specifics:

In Freiburg, you will be hired as student assistant and therefore some organizational tasks for the Freiburg EPICUR team will also be your responsibility. Those include e.g.:

- Attendance in monthly team meetings and support of EPICUR team with occasional research tasks
- Help with organization of events on-site

If you are ready to contribute to the transformation of higher education within our Student Board, we invite you to apply! Be part of the EPICUR journey and help shape the future of European university alliances with us 😊

We look forward to welcoming passionate individuals to our EPICUR Student Board!

Contact: Charlotte Langowski – EPICUR Coordinator University of Freiburg charlotte.langowski@zv.uni-freiburg.de